Dukes Lane

The Lanes

The most famous area in Brighton is The Lanes – once the heart of the old fishing town.

This historic quarter is now a collection of vibrant narrow streets full of interesting specialist shops. Whether you are shopping for clothing, jewellery, furniture or antiques or are simply looking for somewhere to eat and drink, there is a great shop, café or restaurant waiting to be found.

Carling Academy

The Brighton Hippodrome is currently being converted into a 40,000 sq ft Carling Academy. It is set to become the premier live music venue on the south coast.

About Brighton

Brighton has an eclectic mix of both independent and national retailers and is one of the top retail destinations in the UK. It is a colourful, bohemian area with a rich mixture of cultures and people.
